Rev. H. L. Burleson to Spend Week
With Vermont Churches.

St. Albans, April 29.—The May issue of The Mountain Echo, the church paper of the Episcopal diocese of Vermont, will contain the following announcement:

"The Rev. H. L. Burleson, assistant secretary of the board of missions of the Protestant Episcopal church, has promised to spend the week of May 21-28 in Vermont, speaking in as many parishes as he can visit during that time, and the missionary committee has made the following appointments for him, giving the preference to cures in Franklin county because Mr. Burleson's father was a native of this county and also because it is more difficult to secure speakers from outside the state for the northern portion than for the more southerly parishes:

"Sunday, May 21, morning, St. Albans; evening, Swanton.

"Monday, May 22, evening, Richford.

"Tuesday, May 23, morning and afternoon, meeting of St. Albans district of woman's auxiliary at East Berkshire; evening, Enosburg Falls.

"Wednesday, May 24, evening, East Fairfield.

"Thursday, May 25, (Ascension day) evening, Milton.

"Friday, May 26, morning and afternoon, meeting of Burlington district of woman's auxiliary, Shelburne; evening, Burlington.

"Saturday, May 28, morning, Montpelier; evening, Barre."

Mr. Burleson's father, the late Rev. S. S. Burleson, was a resident of Franklin for many years. To Mr. Burleson, who was an Episcopal clergyman, and his wife, Abbie (Pomeroy) Burleson, were born eight children, five sons and three daughters, and all of the sons entered the ministry of the Episcopal church. The family went west, probably 50 years ago, and all the sons were born there. They are: Rev. A. L. Burleson, of Guadalajara, Mexico; Rev. H. L., whose headquarters are in New York; Rev. J. K. of Grand Forks, N. Dak.; Rev. E. W. of Jamestown, N. Dak.; and Rev. Guy P., of Grand Forks.

THREE ARRESTS IN LORIMER CASE

Trio Charged With Contempt In Refusing to Produce Books Senate Called For.

Chicago, April 29.—Judge Pettit in the superior court yesterday granted a writ of habeas corpus for Edward Tilden, George M. Benedict, and W. C. Cummings within half an hour after they had been arrested by E. H. Hatfield, assistant sergeant-at-arms of the Illinois Senate.

Hatfield bore warrants charging contempt of the Illinois Senate for the refusal of the three to obey subpoenas duces tecum calling for their appearance with those books and accounts of the Drovers' Deposit National bank and the Drovers' Trust and Savings bank relating to the accounts of Edward Tilden.

Mr. Tilden was mentioned in the testimony of Clarence Funk of the International Harvester company as the man to whom he was invited to send a subscription for the alleged purpose of aiding in the election of United States Senator William Lorimer.

Hatfield made no attempt to arrest the three Thursday night on his arrival here, and they surrendered themselves early yesterday.

Judge Pettit announced, when the defendants, their counsel and Attorney John J. Healy, representing the Holm committee, appeared, that he would be unable to hear the petition because of other matters. He set Monday at 11 o'clock a. m. as the date for the hearing, and fixed the bonds of the three defendants at $5,000 each.

FOUR ARRESTS MADE.

Three Men and a Woman Face Robbery Charge.

Great Barrington, Mass., April 29.—Four persons were arrested here yesterday in connection with the hold-up last November of the paymaster of a construction company by three men, who stole from him the company's payroll of $15,000 and then escaped into the woods.

The prisoners arrested are Tony Smaat of Great Barrington and Frederick Laforge of Sheffield, who are charged with robbery, and Frederick Saules and his wife of Sheffield, who are charged with complicity.

In court all pleaded not guilty and were held for a continued hearing on Friday, May 5. Smaat and Laforge, in default of bail, were committed to jail. The Saules furnished bail.

REVOLT STARTS IN CANTON

Rioters Seek Possession of Chinese City

A BATTLE IN THE STREET

Number Killed Near the Residence of the Viceroy—Revolutionists' Bomb Thrown Into the Yamen of the Viceroy—City Cut Off.

Shanghai, April 29.—Telegrams from Canton yesterday stated that a serious uprising has occurred in that city. The revolutionists had made all plans for an uprising yesterday and expected to be joined by large numbers of foreign trained Chinese soldiers whose term of service expired yesterday. The revolutionists believed that with the assistance of the soldiers they would be able to seize the city.

The rioting began prematurely Thursday night when a bomb was thrown into the yamen of the Viceroy, but it caused only slight damage.

The revolutionists, who were well armed, had a sharp engagement at the official residence of the viceroy, with the loyal troops, Admiral Li in command of the regulars succeeded in repelling the attack after a number of rioters had been killed.

The greatest excitement prevails in Canton and news from the city is very scarce. The government has shut down on the sending of news dispatches, and even outgoing cable dispatches are held up for hours. The gates of Canton city have been closed and strong guards of loyal troops protect the official residences.

POTASH DISPUTE NEAR END.

All American Interests to Participate in Conference at Hamburg, May 10.

Berlin, April 29.—One of the German representatives in the German-American potash controversy stated yesterday that all American interests would participate in the negotiations at Hamburg on May 10. It has been reported that the American independents would deal separately with the German syndicate. It is believed here that the coming conference will result in a settlement of the whole matter.

The Sirolin Sentinel

"Fighting The Great White Plague"

BARRE, SATURDAY, APRIL 29, 1911.

YOU Can Be Cough, Cold and Consumption Proof.

SIROLIN, the gift of Switzerland to America, promises to put a decided check on consumption, through its power to prevent trifling Coughs and Colds from becoming serious maladies.

CONSUMPTION is caused by CARE- LESSNESS.

Neglected Coughs and Colds that weaken the system and leave the lungs and air passages breeding-places for the germs that cause "THE GREAT WHITE PLAGUE."

Coughs and Colds can be prevented—by taking Sirolin in time. "In time" means at the first sign of "catching cold"—the sneeze, the chilliness, the susceptibility to draughts—the aches that send their warning ahead.

A dose or two of Sirolin taken "in time" will almost inevitably prevent a Cough, Cold, La Grippe, or other ailment of the breathing passages.

Sirolin, the great Swiss remedy, is one of the miracles of modern medicine—a leading exponent of the trend of medicine towards the prevention of disease.

Those who keep Sirolin in the house, ready to take "in time," are IMMUNE against the most common, troublesome and dangerous of ailments—the host of diseases that affect the throat and lungs.

The remedial virtues of Sirolin are no less wonderful than its power of prevention.

In incipient Consumption, in deep-seated Coughs and Colds, La Grippe, Bronchitis, and Whooping-Cough its effects are quick and permanent. The disagreeable symptoms quickly disappear, the appetite becomes keen, the bodily weight increases.

And yet, with this power to do GOOD, Sirolin is as harmless as water. It is without a single harmful ingredient—without a trace of narcotic drug.

Little wonder that Sirolin has been endorsed by throat and lung specialists of Europe—that its fame is spreading throughout the world.

Every druggist now has Sirolin or can get it for you.

LAURIER WILL NOT GO

FIRST DUTY IS TO CANADA

And If Reciprocity Agreement Is Not Approved In Time He Will Remain at Home—Fight May Be Prolonged.

Ottawa, April 29.—The determination of the Canadian government to ratify reciprocity was emphasized in parliament yesterday by the prime minister, Sir Wilfrid Laurier, who declared that he would not go to England to represent Canada at the imperial conference or to the coronation of King George in June, but would remain at Ottawa and press the reciprocity agreement if the conservative opposition persisted in obstructing the ratification of the pact.

The matter was brought before parliament by opposition leader Borden, who asked Sir Wilfrid what his intentions were in regard to the approaching events in London.

"I deem it my duty to attend," replied Sir Wilfrid "and engaged my passage six weeks ago, but I have come to the conclusion that should my presence be required in Canada, and there is every indication that it will be, it will be my duty to forego the privilege of attending the conference. My first duty is to Canada."

"As Canada is a most important part of the British empire," replied Mr. Borden, "it is obvious that in the absence of its prime minister no very important action can be taken by the conference and the absence of Sir Wilfrid Laurier on this occasion would be a blow to the continued existence of this great factor in the solution of imperial questions."

"So far as reciprocity is concerned, our attitude is one of uncompromising opposition. We believe that if carried into effect it would be disastrous not only to Canada, but to the British empire," said Mr. Borden.

"I entirely agree," said Sir Wilfrid in reply, "that it would be unfortunate that any of the prime ministers of the self-governing British dominions should be absent from so important an event as the imperial conference which is held but once in four years. If it is not possible for me to go, the fault will not be mine. The one thing which prevents is the position of the trade agreement with the United States."

"The question must present itself to the prime minister," said Mr. Borden, "whether or not our trade and other relations with the United States are more important than our trade and other relations with the empire of which we form a part. Under the circumstances I trust the prime minister will reconsider the intimation he has given and that at the conference and the coronation Canada will be represented as she should be, by the prime minister."

Sir Wilfrid made no reply and it is generally accepted here that he will not go to England this year and that the fight at Ottawa over reciprocity will be prolonged and marked with a good deal of bitterness.

THE BAR SINISTER.

By Fred L. Young.

We are apt to prize what we are not used to. I suppose one reason the daughters of our multimillionaires are inclined to marry foreigners with titles is that titles are not an American institution. What gives them their glamour is that they are not American.

When on a visit to England I visited the Earl of Bannerton. We were sitting one evening together drinking port wine and smoking. The walls were covered with portraits of his ancestors.

"We Americans," I said, "envy you your family histories, your blood, your ancestral homes. What a fine thing it is to feel that you have pure blue blood in your veins, especially when there is no taint in it."

The earl smiled. "What would you say," he replied, "if I told you that my grandfather was a highwayman?"

"I should say you were amusing yourself."

"He was."

"A highwayman?"

"Yes. Come, I will show you his portraits and that of his wife, my grandmother."

He led me into a room used exclusively for family likenesses and stopped before two portraits, a young man and a young woman. The man must have been extremely handsome.

We sat down, and he told me their story while I was looking at them as they were when the events narrated occurred.

"The young bloods of England in olden times were not as vicious in some respects as they are today. They drank pretty hard, but they were not effeminate. When they were not fighting foreign enemies or engaged in cruel warfare an outlet was required for their surplus vitality. One day Sir Roger Smartleigh was driving on a road with his daughter Clarissa—the girl faced lady you see before you—when his coach was stopped. A horseman appeared at the window and demanded what he called 'alms.' He was masked, of course, but he had the manner of a courtier. Captivated by Clarissa's beauty, he swung his hat in deference to her like the hero of a sixpenny novel of the present day. Sir Roger emptied his pockets, holding out the contents, with his watch, to the highwayman."

"Never mind those," said the robber. "If the young lady will give me that bit of lace she wears about her throat I will ask no more."

"Glad to escape with so little damage," Sir Roger bade his daughter give up her lace. She obeyed like a dutiful child, handing it to the highwayman.

"I only ask it as a loan," he said, and will bring it to you in person."

"The highwayman."

"There is one man in the United States who has perhaps heard more women's secrets than any other man or woman in the country. These secrets are not secrets of guilt or shame, but the secrets of suffering, and they have been confided to Dr. R. V. Pierce in the hope and expectation of advice and help. That few of these women have been disappointed in their expectations is proved by the fact that ninety-eight per cent. of all women treated by Dr. Pierce have been absolutely and altogether cured. Such a record would be remarkable if the cases treated were numbered by hundreds only. But when that record applies to the treatment of more than half-a-million women, in a practice of over 40 years, it is phenomenal, and entitles Dr. Pierce to the gratitude accorded him by women, as the first of specialists in the treatment of women's diseases."

Every sick woman may consult Dr. Pierce by letter, absolutely without charge. All replies are mailed, sealed in perfectly plain envelopes, without any printing or advertising whatever, upon them. Write without fear as with-out fee, to World's Dispensary Medical Association, Dr. R. V. Pierce, Pres., Buffalo, N. Y.

The Regal Shoe Company refuses to be bound any longer to the hoary old tradition of the Shoe Trade that standard shoes must necessarily be built to fit certain arbitrary prices—$3.50, $4.00, $4.50, $5.00, and so on.

It refuses to believe any longer that a shoe that can be sold at, say, $3.85, must be "built up" to sell at $4.00, or else "skinned down" to sell at $3.50.

It has announced that every Regal Shoe made hereafter will be priced at

Cost, Delivered to the Customer,
Plus 5 Per Cent. Commission

This may figure out in "even money" or it may not, just as it happens. But, however it figures, the amount will invariably be verified by certified public accountants and stamped on the shoe at the factory, and that will be the price you pay.

In justice to yourself you should not be asked to pay more. In justice to the shoe it should not be "skinned down" to cost less.

Regal Prices Are Now $3³⁵ to $5⁸⁵
